Press Release:

Fans of Taylor Wane will want to add this collectable to their Holiday wish list. Taylor Wane becomes Santa's helper on the cover of Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation's "Rock 4 X-Mas Studio CD: Volume 1", which will feature the busty beauty on the cover. The CD will hit stores on October 25th, with plenty of time to stuff your stockings with some Taylor Wane love.

This All-Star studio album compilation features Christmas tracks from Cheap Trick, Eddie Money, Larry Hoppen of the band Orleans known for the hit songs 'Dance with Me' and 'Still the One', Ron Keel of Iron Horse and the 80's screaming metal band Steeler (2 of Keel's later albums were produced by rock legend Gene Simmons of the band KISS), Paul Shortino from Rough Cutt and Quiet Riot, Brit Rockers Joey

Molland of Badfinger, John Ford of the Strawbs, 60's female superstar and legendary lady of rock and roll Ronnie Spector from the "girl group" the Ronettes (remembered for their many radio successes including 'Be My Baby' and 'I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus') plus tracks by many other notable musicians who have united with the Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation in an effort to help raise funds for the Nation's needy and Hurricane Relief victims. The albums release will coincide with a 30 minute "Rock 4 X-MAS On The Road" cable series coming soon that will allow viewers a peek into the creation of this very special studio album. Television series includes behind the scenes footage and interviews from contributing musicians, crew and staff that are helping to make the nationally touring U.S. Rock 4 X-MAS Charity Concert & TV music series a success.

Jason Frost, a Rock 4 X-MAS supporter who runs A Frosty J Productions (ASCAP), was excited at the opportunity to show off Taylor on this new compilation. "We are still gearing up and finalizing details on the Taylor Wane 'Wax on Plastic' release in 2006, but this Rock 4 X-MAS opportunity came up, and we had to jump on it. Taylor will be on both A Frosty J Productions 'Wax on Plastic' due out in 2006, and this amazing Christmas rock music compilation."

The Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation's Christmas music compilation is yet another way for Wayne Morrison, President and Founder, of the Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation to raise money to help the needy and Hurricane Relief victims this year along with the charity's many other fundraiser items, autographed materials, and also live shows comprising an All-Star band of members from many well-known Classic Rock, Alternative and Metal bands.

Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation organizes events to benefit the less fortunate during the winter holidays. Over the past eight years, the Rock 4 X-MAS Foundation has raised money and provided entertainment for families in need throughout the United States of America. Many actors, athletes, comedians, musicians and rock and roll music legends have joined and teamed up with the foundation over the years, putting on some very memorable shows and concert performances for audiences in select North American cities. Past performers and headliners have included bandmembers from Great White, Anthrax, Zebra, Quiet Riot, Pink Floyd, Ozzy Osbourne, Metal Church, King Kobra, Rod Stewart & Vanilla Fudge, Mountain & Frehley's Comet, Yngwie Malmsteen, Blue Oyster Cult, Badfinger, Keel, Orleans, Lou Gramm, Cher & Drive She Said, Shadows of Knight, XYZ, Enuuff Z' Nuff, Geezer Butler Band, Doom Society, Gravity, Savatage and many of which will again be a part of this years national tour. Actual 2005 line-up to be announced shortly. Check website www.rock4xmas.com for the latest line up news and full list of cities, dates and venues.

The Rock 4 X-MAS Concert tour, in its 9th season, kicks off November 2nd in Los Angeles and will hit over 30 major cities across U.S.A., wrapping up December 10th in Orlando, Florida. For show dates + more visit www.Rock4XMAS.com
